DAVID MONTGOMERY - President and Chief Executive Officer

David P. Montgomery succeeded Bill Giles as President, Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner of the Phillies on June 20, 1997.

Montgomery first joined the Phillies on February 25, 1971, as a member of the Sales Department. He progressed to positions of Marketing Director and Director of Sales before becoming Executive Vice President when the current ownership group purchased the team from the Carpenter family after the 1981 season. Eleven years later, Montgomery was elevated to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

The groundwork for his eventual appointment as President took place in November of 1994 when he was designated as a Co-General Partner which included a segment of ownership.

Born June 26, 1946, in Philadelphia, Montgomery is a graduate of William Penn Charter School (1964) and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970. He currently serves as a trustee at the University of Pennsylvania.

Montgomery is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises. He has served as a member of MLB's Labor Policy Committee and the Strategic Planning Committee. He continues his work on the MLB Schedule Committee.

He serves on the Board of Directors of Need in Deed and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He's a past Board Chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynne School.

He and his wife Lyn reside in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa.

BILL GILES - Chairman

Bill Giles has spent his whole life in baseball. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati.

Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Following graduation at Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45's.

While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

OWNERSHIP

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group which purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained President of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to Chairman: "to focus my energy on realizing my dream of getting a new ballpark for this city."

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: Chairman of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia First and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993); Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996); Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year.

Giles is likewise very active in major league baseball matters. He is a member of the Official Rules Committee and Chairman of both the Television Committee and the Schedule Format Committee.

Giles, who was born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, resides in Villanova, PA, with his wife, Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Joe and his wife Paula have two daughters, Caroline and Dana, and Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren, all of whom live in the Philadelphia area.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings), or light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment. RULE 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next schedule, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

Should there be a second suspension, umpires shall wait at least 45 minutes before calling a game. For a third and any subsequent rain delays umpires are to wait at least 30 minutes.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completed a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher) by total plate appearances (at bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifice flies).

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

WAIVERS

WAIVERS - Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's early history. The Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team.

Philadelphia's earliest team was called the Athletics. The year was 1870. The following year, the National Association was formed and Philadelphia was a part of that league. The team was still called the Athletics.

When the Association disbanded, several of the stronger teams formed (1876) the National League, as it is known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a take-off on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

Al Reach

Lost First Game

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,665 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 92 million spectators have attended games since the turn of the century when attendance figures were first recorded.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game, April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

The first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927 forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park, July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

Ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly, while the A's remained stable under the Shibe family. From 1903-1943, the Phillies had ten different owners.

Pat Moran

Carpenter Era Begins

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE), bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays although they still maintained the official Phillies title. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

The name Blue Jays was heavily used the first two years (1944-45) and then began to appear less often in the newspapers in 1946 and 1947. The name never appeared in the newspapers after that year.

When Carpenter took over as President, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, called the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbetts Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Richie Ashburn, the center fielder, started a string of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles.

A world title eluded the Phillies as the New York Yankees swept the Phillies in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it is worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Thirteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971. In 1995, 25 years later, the Phillies celebrated the Silver Season of the Vet with a special logo and events throughout the year.

Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history when at precisely 11:29 p.m., Tuesday, October 21, 1980, Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its' first World Championship. Dallas Green was the manager.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as president in 1972 and general manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League east in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they had signed free agent Pete Rose.

The Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Utopia hit Philadelphia when the Phillies won the Series over the Royals, 4-2.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

Carpenter Family Sells

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In the second year under this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

GM Paul Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS.

The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. A new set of heroes emerged from the 1993 season, when a last-place team from the previous year turned it around with another division title.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by general manager Lee Thomas.

Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens, as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the World Series.

Heroes such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered but there were new heroes on the scene from the 1993 team, which led the NL for all but one day throughout the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a team with a total team effort. All 25 emerged as heroes.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favorite Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents. A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

On June 20, 1997, David Montgomery, former Executive Vice President, succeeded Giles as President of the Phillies. Giles became Chairman of the Board upon handing the reins over to Montgomery, which allowed him to focus more energy on getting a new ballpark built for the Phillies.

But, Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

Under Giles' - and now Montgomery's - regime, the Phillies became more and more involved in the community and helping people. Over a 14-year period which began in 1984, the Phillies Family of players, wives and office staff, raised more than $4.3 million to strike out ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease).

Individual players contributed financially and personally in helping many, many charities.

In 1989, the Phillies began a Rookie League program for inner-city kids, ages 12 and under. In 1993, the Phillies added an RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inter-cities) program for ages 13-18. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,500 boys and girls yearly. In August, 1995, Philadelphia hosted the RBI World Series.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise, Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners, Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian,

People who were Rookie of the Year winners, Jack Sanford, Dick Allen and the Phillies latest addition, Scott Rolen.

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television: Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more historic date in Phillies history....April 25, 1978, when a big green furry creature made its' debut as the team's mascot....Phillie Phanatic. As with the 116-year old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to the surrounding community has been a hallmark of the Phillies ever since Bill Giles and his partners' assumed ownership of the club in 1981.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and covers the wide variety of charity involvement of the organization. In addition to giving funds and providing thousands of charitable donations to a variety of local non-profit organizations, the Phillies have raised over $4.3 million for the official Phillies charity, ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) since 1984.

Rico Brogna, Doug Glanville, Wayne Gomes, Mike Lieberthal, Scott Rolen and Curt Schilling are among the Phillies players who also donate time and money to a variety of charities throughout the season.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who work and volunteer as a group (Women in the Major Leagues) throughout the year to raise funds for Childhelp USA and Big Brothers and Sisters of America.

Among the groups benefiting from the Phillies are: the Boy Scouts of America, CADE, Junior Baseball Federation, Jackie Robinson Foundation, Police Athletic League and the United Negro College Fund.

The Phillies Speakers' Bureau is comprised of active and former players, coaches, broadcasters and management, appearing throughout the tri-state area.

Dickie Noles is a key member of the bureau. He speaks to parents and youth groups about alcohol and drug abuse through his S.A.V.E.S. Program.

The Phillies are also committed to promoting and supporting education and literacy programs. Among those programs: "Breaking Barriers", Free Library Reading Program and Philadelphia School District Reading Program, Multiple Sclerosis Read-Athon and our Visit the Vet Program.

In addition, the Phillies are committed to developing youth baseball in the Philadelphia area. Rookie and RBI leagues are designed to encourage inner city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball. The Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to tri-state area high school baseball players and the Liberty Bell Classic does the same for college level players.

Scott Rolen brightened some young faces at the festivities during the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Transplant Party.

THE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat

AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978

BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows

SKIN: Bright green fur

PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

It was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. It was named after the fanatical Phillies fans.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 17 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989. He additionally joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made world-wide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997 and 1998) and Australia (1997). The 33 year old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in Marketing. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Andrew and Daniel.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN PHILADELPHIA

July 13, 1943, Shibe Park	AL	5	8	0
	NL	3	10	0

Bobby Doerr's 3-run homer in the second inning propelled the AL Stars to their third straight victory before 31,938. Vince DiMaggio led the NL with a single, triple and home run. Winner: Emil Leonard; Losers: Mort Cooper. It was the first ASG played entirely under the lights. Game was shortwaved to American fighting men throughout the world.

July 8, 1952, Shibe Park	NL	3	3	0
	AL	2	5	0

Only game in ASG history not to go nine innings as rain halted play after five innings. Jackie Robinson hit a solo homer in the first and Hank Sauer hit a two-run homer onto the LF roof in the fourth for all the NL runs. Two Philadelphia pitchers started the game, Curt Simmons (Phillies) and Bobby Shantz (As). Shantz fanned Whitey Lockman, Robinson and Stan Musial in the fifth to the delight of 32,785 fans. Winner: Bob Rush; Losers: Bob Lemon. Game was broadcast on Mutual Radio System and on NBC-TV.

July 13, 1976, Veterans Stadium	NL	7	10	0
	AL	1	5	0

ASG MVP George Foster hit a 3-run homer to lead NL to fifth win in a row. Third largest crowd (63,974) in ASG history included President Gerald Ford. Five Cincinnati Reds were in the starting lineup. For first time in Phillies history, they had five players in the game: Greg Luzinski (starter in LF), Dave Cash (2b), Larry Bowa (c), Bob Boone (c) and Mike Schmidt (3b). Winner: Randy Jones; Losers: Mark Fidrych. An estimated 60 million fans watched the game on ABC TV.

July 9, 1996, Veterans Stadium	NL	6	12	1
	AL	0	7	0

NL defeats AL for third straight year with 6-0 shut out, behind MVP and Norristown native Mike Piazza's monster home run to the left field upper deck, and RBI double in the second and third innings. Biggest ovation from the crowd of 62,670 went to Ozzie Smith, playing in his 15th and final All-Star Game. Winner: John Smoltz; Losers: Charles Nagy. Game was broadcast on NBC TV and CBS Radio.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, MA (Brown Stockings). They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest-running nickname in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.

IMPROVEMENT: With 75 wins, the '98 Phils improved over last season, when they finished 26 games under .500 at 68-94.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS: After posting a 6-14 record in their first 20 road games, the Phils went 29-32 in their last 61 road games.

ROLEN INTO THE RECORD BOOKS: In 1998, Scott Rolen accomplished the following:

- Became the youngest Phillie in modern history (since 1900) to reach 100 RBI in a season, breaking Pinky Whitney's (23 years, 8 months) record, set in 1928.
- Became just the 2nd Phillie in history to reach 100 R, 40 2B, 30 HR & 100 RBI in the same season, joining Chuck Klein, who did it 3 times (1929-30, '32).
- Set a club record for doubles by a 3rd baseman with 45 (most by a RH Phillie since Ethan Allen's 46 in 1935).
- Scored 120 runs, the most by a RH Phillie since Dick Allen's NL-leading 125 in 1964 and the 2nd-highest total since '64 (Dykstra-143 in '93).
- Became the first Phillie to reach the 30 HR, 100 RBI plateau since Mike Schmidt in 1987 (35,113).

THE WHIFF: Curt Schilling became just the 5th pitcher in major league history to record 300 strikeouts in back-to-back seasons. Schilling notched his 300th and final punchout of the '98 season in the 7th inning of the 1st game of the 9/26 doubleheader at FLA (Kevin Orie). In 1997, Schilling K'd 319, the most ever by a NL RHP.

MR. CLUTCH: Bobby Abreu's .427 avg. (44-103) with runners in scoring pos. was tops in the majors (min. 100 ABs).

YOUNG-TIMERS: For the majority of the season, the average age of the Phillies everyday lineup was 26.2, which was the 3rd-youngest in the majors.

FOR EXTRAS: The Phillies led the NL in extra-inning victories with a 13-9 mark.

AT THE PLATE: The Phillies .264 team avg. ranked T5th in the NL and was 9 points higher than 1997's .255 team avg.

HOME RECAP: The Phils ended up with a 40-41 record at the Vet in '98.

ATTENDANCE: In 79 home dates, the Phillies drew 1,715,702 fans to Veterans Stadium in 1998, compared to 1,490,638 in '97, for an improvement of 225,064.

FINISHERS: As a club, the Phils ranked 2nd in the NL in complete games with 21, trailing only ATL (24) ... Individually, Curt Schilling led the majors with 15 complete games ... Schilling had more complete games than every other NL club but ATL and LA (16).

CLOSE CALLS: The Phils were 29-28 in one-run games and 14-9 in one-runners at home.

IN THE PINCH: On 9/8 vs NYM, Marlon Anderson became the first Phillie ever to record a pinch-home run in his first ML AB or plate app, and just the 6th NL player ever to accomplish the feat.

100-RUN CLUB: Doug Glanville (106) and Scott Rolen (118) gave the Phillies 2 right-handed hitters with 100 runs in the same season for the first time since 1932 when Dick Bartell (118) and George Davis (100) accomplished the feat ... The last time 1 or more Phillies reached 100 runs in a season was in 1993 when Lenny Dykstra (143), Dave Hollins (104) and John Kruk (100) all turned the trick.

600 CLUB: Doug Glanville led the NL with 678 ABs... He became the 1st Phil to reach 600 ABs since 1993 when Lenny Dykstra had 637 ... His 678 ABs are the most by a Phillie since Juan Samuel had a club-record 701 in '84.

TURNING THREE! On 8/30 at SF, the Phillies turned the 27th triple play in club history in the 8th inning ... With Rich Aurilia on second and Barry Bonds on first, Jeff Kent hit a low liner to shortstop Alex Arias, who caught the ball in the air, underhanded it to Mark Lewis at second, who then relayed it to Rico Brogna at first ... It was the first triple play turned by the Phils since 9/20/92 when second baseman Mickey Morandini turned an unassisted triple play at PIT.

DRIVIN' 'EM HOME: Scott Rolen (110) and Rico Brogna (104) gave the Phillies 2 players with 100 RBI in the same season for the first time since 1987 when Juan Samuel (100) and Mike Schmidt (113) turned the trick ... The last 3rd baseman to reach 100 RBI was Schmidt in '87 while the last 1st baseman was 32 years ago in 1966 when Bill White drove in 103.

TRIP DOWN MEMORY LANE: In 3 consecutive road stops, the Phils visited Wrigley Field (6/18-21), Fenway Park (6/22-23) and Yankee Stadium (6/30-7/2). Combined, the 3 parks are 245 years old (Fenway-1912; Wrigley-1914; Yankee Stadium-1923).

COMEBACKERS: The Phillies came back to win 40 games that they trailed in during 1998 ... They rallied from 7-run deficits twice, 6-run deficits twice and a 5-run deficit once ...
